

2017 SPECIAL OFFERINGS

From time to time, Violet Hill is provided access to limited stock from far reaches of our European network. These wines are generally not available to the general public as the release quantities are so very limited. We are proud to announce that we have formed a special union with our friends at Gabart Laval. With their aide we present a list of desirable, collectable and rarely available wines. Take a look. We think you'll be impressed by the selection and pricing.

HIGHLIGHTS:

CHÂTEAU PEDESCLAUX

$ 83/bottle incl.
($ 440 per case of 6 plus
HST & deposit)

Winemaker's notes: A beautiful deep purple color, an aromatic nose of beautiful ripe black fruit. In the mouth, it is round with silky tannins and a suave finish. 93 - Wine Spectator - A ripe, plush, modern style, with a ganache note leading the way for crushed plum, blackberry and currant pâte de fruit notes. Lots of briar and anise on the finish lends a grippy feel. 92 - James Suckling - This is dense and chewy with super-polished tannins with minerals, blueberries and raspberries. Full and dense with a tight structure and a long finish.

CHÂTEAU LAFON ROCHET

$ 113/bottle incl.
($ 1200 per case of 6 plus
HST & deposit)

Château Lafon-Rochet has roots in the 17th century. Currently managed by Basile Tesseron, Lafon-Rochet was jointly managed with Pontet-Canet until 1999. The 2011 vintage is a blend of 33% Merlot, 59% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Cabernet Franc and 5% Petit Verdot grapes and is the product of lower yielding, richer flavoured old vines. A marvellous exemplar of the St. Estephe. 93 - RP. 92 - Wine Spectator - This is a wine that has great potential. You can tell from the firm tannins, tight acidity and closed texture. Initially, black currant flavors are touched with dark, dusty notes, but they finish with more juicy character on the after taste. Drink from 2017.

CHÂTEAU LAGRANGE

$ 176/bottle incl.
($ 1870 per case of 12 plus
HST & deposit)

Château Lagrange Pomerol dates back to at least the later part of the 19th century. The Château, situated on north end of the Pomerol, was bought by Jean-Pierre Moueix in 1953. Château Lagrange Pomerol is a slightly rustic, old school, medium-bodied, style of Bordeaux. The 4.7-hectare Pomerol vineyard of the Lagrange Pomerol is planted to 95% Merlot and 5% Cabernet Franc. The terroir is gravel with some famous blue clay. 1999 is a fine example and ready to drink. 90 - Antonio Galloni.

$ 179/bottle incl.
($ 1900 per case of 12 plus
HST & deposit)

As in the last two vintages, Château Lagrange 2009 is highly marked by Cabernet Sauvignon. The blend for this Lagrange is made from 73% Cabernet Sauvignon and 27% Merlot. The blend is very similar to the vintage 2000 (CS: 76% ; M: 24%). 94 - Wine Enthusiast. 94 - James Suckling - Bright and perfumed, with loads of blueberry, flower and licorice on the nose. Full bodied, with well-integrated tannins and a long, long finish. Class.

$ 155/bottle incl.
 ($ 1650 per case of 12 plus
 HST & deposit)

Château Ferrière was founded in the late 18th century and is currently managed by Claire Villars Lurton. 2004 saw ideal weather conditions in June and from August to September, the alternation of cool nights and sunny days allowed a slow and steady maturation, producing a classic vintage. The grapes were harvested at perfect maturity for a rich, elegant and balanced palate with a lot of fruit and freshness. The wine is complex, dense and very refined. Wine Spectator - 91.

$ 112/bottle incl.
 ($ 1195 per case of 12 plus
 HST & deposit)

The Château Grand-Puy Ducasse has its origins dating back to the 17th century, when Arnaud Ducasse bought out Jacques de Ségur, Lord of Lafite. Currently, Puy Ducasse is run by the CA Grands Crus group, and is headed by Anne Le Naour, and Hubert de Bouärd, who also owns Château Angélus. 89 - Robert Parker - Dense ruby/purple color. An excellent Pauillac offering plenty of black currant and cherry fruit as well as spice box notes, good acidity and ripe tannin. Medium-bodied, rich, pure and textured, it is an impressive, forward, precociously styled effort to enjoy over the next 10-15 years.
